Singing.—FUNERAL HYMN.

BY DEA. ANSON DANIELS.

O God, beneath these Autumn skies,
With heads uncovered, weeping eyes,
And banners trailing in the dust,
A nation stands before the Just.

No aid from human hands can come,
The mighty fall, the wise are dumb;
From North to South, from sea to sea,
Our yearning hearts still turn to Thee.

In all his nobleness he died;
His virtue, courage, patience tried:—
The mighty head, the loving breast
Have ceased to throb at Thy behest.

Walk Thou upon this troubled sea,
The ship of Freedom, keep it free,
And let Thy benediction fall
On widow, fatherless—on all.

Prayer. - - by Rev. J. M. Bell of West Medway.

Singing.—GOD SAVE THE STATE.

TUNE: AMERICA.

God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand, through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave, Ruler of wind and wave,
Do our country save, by thy great might.

For her our prayers shall rise to God, above the skies;
On Him we wait:
Thou who art ever nigh, guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee above we cry, God save the State.

Benediction.
